Prerequisites of course: PSY 2012 General Psychology; CLP 3144 Abnormal Psychology; and STA 2023 Introduction to Statistics I

Course Overview and Purpose

The purpose of this course is to provide students with an introduction to the science and profession of clinical psychology. Course topics will provide students with an understanding of psychopathology, the diverse activities in which clinical psychologists are engaged, the education and training required to become a clinical psychologist, and current issues in the field. In addition, students will be introduced to different methods of assessment, and different approaches to the practice of therapy in clinical psychology. Finally, specialty areas within the field of clinical psychology will be discussed. Throughout the course, emphasis will be placed on an empirical approach to the science and practice of clinical psychology. This course will build on basic foundational knowledge of psychology as a natural and social science gained in an introductory psychology course.

Objectives

Upon successful completion of the course, students should be able to:

1. Describe the diagnostic features of the different disorders studied.
2. Discuss the different manifestations of psychological disorders.
3. Analyze and evaluate theories and treatments for disorders studied.

Methods of Instruction Lecture, class discussion, and small- group and individual work will comprise the majority of class sessions. The role of the instructors will be to: present an overview of relevant topics, provide additional reading material and learning resources with up-to-date research findings, facilitate discussion of selected topics, and provide timely feedback. Expectations for students are to attend class fully prepared, participate in class discussions, and read assigned materials prior to class in preparation for lecture.

Sakai

Sakai is the course management system that you will use for this course. Sakai is accessed by using your Gatorlink account name and password at <http://lss.at.ufl.edu>. There are several tutorials and student help links on the Sakai login site. If you have technical questions call the UF Computer Help Desk at 352-392-HELP or send email to helpdesk@ufl.edu. You are responsible for checking your account prior to each class to determine how you should prepare for the upcoming class.

COURSE POLICIES

Class attendance is considered an integral part of the learning experience as class discussions and lectures will include valuable material covered in the examinations that is not otherwise covered in the textbook. However, class attendance will not be taken. Thus, students are expected to attend all classes and participate in class discussions to have exposure to this information; however, class attendance will not be calculated into your final grade in the course. If students must be absent, they will be responsible for any missed material by acquiring lecture notes from other students who attended. Some material presented in lectures will not be in the texts and will be included on examinations. Thus, reduced attendance can be expected to result in a lower course grade. Requirements for class attendance and make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found in the online catalog at: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>.

Please do not email your instructors to let them know about your planned or unplanned absences, as your attendance will not make up any part of your grade.

As Clinical Psychology is a thought provoking topic and often leads to interesting discussions about the topics covered within this course, student participation is expected. We expect each individual to contribute throughout the semester. Remember: There are no “stupid questions” and one of the most powerful ways to learn is in the moment by interacting with your instructors and classmates.

Classroom Etiquette:

- Please refrain from using I-pods or cell phones or any other electronic devices during class as it is distracting and inconsiderate of other students and the instructor. Cell phones must be placed on silent or turned off during class. Any use of a cell phone during class (i.e., chatting, texting) will be considered a violation of this policy as it disrupts other students from learning. Students who violate this policy will be asked to leave and will lose 1% of their final grade per violation. Please speak to the instructors prior to the beginning of class if you experience an emergency that requires you to leave the room to take a phone call.
- Please do not arrive late to class or disrupt the class as it is distracting and inconsiderate of other students and the instructor.

- To the extent permitted by facility rules and restrictions, you may bring food and/or beverages to class as long as it does not interfere with your ability to work and/or participate in class and as long as it does not interfere with or your classmates' ability to work and participate in class. You will be expected to clean-up after yourself and dispose of all trash before leaving the classroom.

Policy related to make-up work

We expect you to attend and to be prepared to participate in all class sessions. Personal issues with respect to fulfillment of course requirements will be handled on an individual basis. If you must miss an exam because of a foreseeable conflict (i.e., professional conference, athletic competition, religious observance, etc.) you are expected to notify us immediately to set-up alternative arrangements prior to the exam date. If a student is not in class for an exam due to an illness or medical emergency, they will be required to provide a statement from their healthcare provider documenting the illness or medical emergency. Requirements for make-up exams, assignments, and other work in this course are consistent with university policies that can be found in the online catalog at: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/attendance.aspx>.

Reporting illnesses and family emergencies

In the event you experience an unexpected illness, family, or otherwise personal emergency please notify us immediately to set-up alternative arrangements.

Course Evaluation/Grading

Information on current UF grading policies for assigning grade points can be found here: <https://catalog.ufl.edu/ugrad/current/regulations/info/grades.aspx>

Procedures: Students will be graded based on a grading scale as detailed below.

Exams: There will be four non-cumulative exams that will be comprised of a variety of multiple choice questions and short answer questions. Class attendance will be rewarded via the inclusion of in-class information in each exam that is not covered in the textbook.

Paper: There will be one “paper” assigned during the course described below

“Assess, Diagnose and Plan a Treatment for a famous character”:

Students will be asked to identify a “well-known” character from movies, television, books, plays, etc and attempt to assess that character based on discussions in class. The paper should include the following sections and information (if known):

1. Background Information- what is the character’s age, sex, occupation, health history, drug & alcohol history, life difficulties, life goals, weaknesses
2. Description of the character’s typical presentation. Describe symptoms (physical, emotional, sensory).
3. Description of how you would assess this character to determine his/her diagnosis. What instruments used. Likely results. Describe as much detail as possible (You can make the results up as long as they are consistent with the character)
4. Provide your diagnosis and give the appropriate Diagnostic and Statistical Manual code # (You can use DSM-4 or DSM-5).
5. Provide your recommended intervention. You can use any theoretical approach. For your chosen approach, describe how a therapist from that approach would view your character's symptoms/problems. Offer some background information on your chosen approach and generally describe the overview of treatment sessions.

Papers should minimally be 4 pages, double spaced, with Times New Roman, 12 point font. Please turn in 1 paper copy of your paper in class and one electronic copy via Sakai. Additional details regarding the content and formatting guidelines of the paper will be provided in class. Late papers will be penalized one letter grade on the first day late, and will continue to drop one letter grade for each subsequent day on which they are not turned in.
